Our Exhibition: Celebrating the traditional quilt

The official opening of the exhibition was last Friday 3.1.20. We were delighted that so many of you arrived. Seventy three lovely works of art are displayed. We wish to thank all of you who entered your creations. We wish to extend our appreciation to the judges, to Nltza Waldman [our volunteer that operates our website], and to the volunteers that that helped the board at the theater.

First Prize: Tamar Rimon-Hamly
Second Prize: Liat Engler and Rachel Covo
Third Prize: Dalia Eliraz
Judges' Favorites: Edith Haran, Naomi Gordon, Eti David

Congratulations!!!

The exhibition will be open until 21/1/2020.

On 8.1 and 15.1 the theater will light up the exhibition also in the morning from 10.30 until 13.00, in addition to the afternoon.

Organized groups that wish to arrive in the morning will do wisely if they get in touch beforehand with the theater.

March 2020 Workshops

Unfortunately, due to technical circumstances, we have postponed the workshops, scheduled for March, with Heidi Drahoté. We hope that Heidi will be able to arrive for the summer workshops scheduled for the end of June, beginning of July.

Save the Date: Members Get together

On Tuesday afternoon, March 17, we will meet for a members' get together in Bat Yam. We will tour the "Woman " exhibit of the " Encounters" group and have a gallery talk with the artists. More on the program will be forthcoming.

We wish to remind all of you who wish to teach to send us ASAP proposals for workshops and ongoing courses.

One/two day workshops for the summer workshops.

A series of one day workshops that will travel through the country like those we have next week [Ohalo, Zichron Yaakov, Ashdod, Jerusalem].

Ongoing courses that will meet once a month on a particular subject: quilting a quilt, the uses of color and value, design and composition, transforming an idea to a quilt, the uses of computer in planning a quilt, and more.....
