Newsletter November 2020

Dear Member,

For quite a while, we have made attempts to organize activities that meet all the ordinances and requirements. Time and time again we have had to cancel planned events. However now, in keeping with the realities of our time, and the necessity to stay at home we have succeeded, after a complicated process, to organize events on the zoom platform.

In this newsletter, you will find details of the lectures and workshop, some free, and some with a small fee.

We are negotiating with more teachers and will inform you when we will reach new agreements.

We hope that you, our local teachers, will join us in organizing zoom lectures and workshops.

All our activities are for paid members only. We remind you that your 2020 membership payment is valid for 2021.

"Those are a Few of my Favorite Things" Exhibition

Due to the corona situation, we have postponed the opening of the exhibition. We have an agreement with the Arena gallery. The exhibition will take place, however we can't settle now on a definite date. Still, you can pass on the quilts to the board members, to Hava Katzir, to Hassi Naveh , to Ronit Eilat, and to Pissott when it will be allowed to open.

We need volunteers in the center of the country to serve as gathering points.

Phyllis Cullen and Cindy Richard- It's All About The Face

"It's all about the face "is the name of a new book and Facebook group by Phyllis and Cindy that focuses on quilting portraits. According to them there aren't any books about the best way to quilt portraits to emphasize anatomical contour and bone structure. They decided to fill this void. Their talk introduces creating portraits that tell a story or memorialize a loved one. They show some of the techniques and styles they cover step-by-step in the book. They touch on the use of values and color and about the actual quilting of a portrait. They invite you to visit them and see the inspiring works in the group:
